DEDICATION

We dedicate our '57 Trojan to you, Miss Watkins, for all the devotion you have given to our school and to us as individual students. We deeply appreciate all of your leadership, backing of our many varied activities, and untiring efforts. You have won a permanent place in the hearts of all of us.

MISS WATKINS

To Miss Watkins, Our Leader

ADMINISTRATION

CLARKE COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION
ATHENS, GEORGIA

OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

February 8, 1957

To the Students of the Athens High School

To Seniors who will be graduating in June, I extend congratulations and best wishes for success as you continue your education in colleges or go directly into business, industry, agriculture, homemaking or other life work.

To all students, who have upheld the standards of the Athens High School in scholastic work, athletics and all other activities, I extend congratulations also. Those of you who are not completing your high school careers this year will have further opportunities to contribute to the progress of the Athens High School and I am confident that, in your work with teachers and in all activities, you will continue the fine traditions of the school.

During 1956-57, the first year of operation as a school serving the entire county, the work of the student body and the school staff has been such that the Athens High School has been a credit to this community. Citizens of Athens and Clarke County are proud of you.

Sincerely,

Sam W. Wood

Sam W. Wood

CLASSIC BEAUTIES OF TIME

The annual Athens High School Beauty Review was held at Fine Arts Auditorium on January 10. The theme for the 1957 review was "Blue Heaven." The stage presented a scene of heavenly mist.

Ann Thurston, the mistress of ceremonies, introduced the beauties by reading a poem before each name.

The judges were Mrs. S. R. Pipitone, Miss Marie Barran, Mr. J. R. Hall, Mr. George Foster, Mr. J. J. Newberry. The page was Harriet Heery.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, BRANTLEY ALEXANDER, will to Nancy Upchurch my desk in Miss Ruby's English Class (if she makes it to the twelfth grade).

I, BILLY AMIS, will to Ernie Mitchell our Jim Dandy liquor cabinet and supplies.

I, JOYCE ANGLIN, will to Jean Gordon and Gwennie Fulcher my ability to be "best of friends" with Phil Durden and Francis Tarkenton.

I, JUDY APPLETON, will my T. T. T. headaches to the next editor, but I hope that she won't find herself wearing glasses as a result.

I, JANET ARNOLD, will my nickname, "Granma," which was passed on to me by a former senior, to Connie Wallace so I can get rid of it.

I, MARTHA J. AUTRY, will to my brother, Jimmy, the P.A.B.C. gang, and "my favorite sophomore," my happy years at Athens High.

I, JACK AVERY, being of unsound mind, will my ability to fail chemistry to Jimmy "Ugly" Cofer.

I, JAMES BASHAM, will to my two cousins, Luland and Bobby, my ability to graduate on the condition that I can have it back if I need it.

I, KAREN BASS, will my ability to cut-up and still make A in citizenship to Beverly Bridges.

I, CLAUDE BECK, will to Kay Kesler a free ticket to Saudi Arabia to become one of King Saud's wives.

I, ROBERT E. BERRONG, will my first million dollars to Miss Grace Anderson, so she can buy her own tea company.

I, RONNIE BOND and my venerated co-procrastinator, FRANCIS TARKENTON, do hereby will our supine, dormant, positions in Miss Ruby's up-to-date Shakespearian English genus to Eddie Sams and Jimmy Bryant.

I, FRANK BOWDEN, will my ability to make A's (?) in Geometry to my brother, Prescott, in hopes that he can use it.

I, SARA FRANCES BOWEN, will my demureness and femininity to Angela Burton.

I, BUDDY BROADNAX, will my "mud slinging" ability to Ronnie Lampkin and Bubba Thompson, and my ability to have flat tires to Dick Ferguson.

I, SANDRA BROOKS, will to Jo Ann Palmer my ability to knit argyle socks in class without getting caught.

I, GAY BRYANT, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Patat to Shirley Roberts in hopes she will make better than I did in second period.

I, DONALD BURROUGHS, will my ability to graduate in 4½ years to Jimmy Fields in hopes that he will do that good.

I, FRANK CALLAWAY, will my rusty bass trombone to anyone who can use an old slush pump.

I, EDWIN CARRUTH, will to any future student of Unkie, my seasoned nose so he will not become intoxicated from "his" perfumes.

I, KATIE CHADWICK, will my chair in Miss Ruby's English class and homeroom to Fostine Jaynes.

I, BUDDY CHAPMAN, hereby bequeath my extraordinary ability to be a gentleman without anyone ever knowing it, to my brother Doug in hopes that he can make better use of it than I did and to Billy Gambrell, my ability to get along with he knows who.

I, SUZANNE CHAPMAN, will to Gwen Bond my warm spot on the bench, hoping, however, that she won't need to use it.

I, ALDO CHARLES, hereby will my daily lunch to Doug Chapman who never seemed to have one of his own.

I, FRANCES CHILDS, will my ability to make an A plus in spelling to Barbara Roberts.

I, MIRIAM CHRISTIAN, hereby will and bequeath my great height to Jean Arnold in the hopes that it may further her basketball career, and to next year's advertising manager, my ability to endlessly and tirelessly pace the streets of Athens in 28 degree rain and sleet.

I, RAYMOND COILE, will to anyone who wants it my ability to get demerits in military from Sgt. O'Brien.

I, RORY COKER, hereby will the entire literary works of A. E. Neuman and Melvin Coznowske to the school library, where students may be allowed to burn them and thus save others from their mind-rotting humor and to anyone who wants its my cherry-red flying saucer.

I, BILL COOLEY, leave Athens High School, I hope.

I, NINA SUE COUCH, will to Peggy Loyd my seat in Miss Ruby Anderson's homeroom and first period English class. I hope she will enjoy being in there like I have.

I, BETTY CRAWFORD, will to Mary Morton my ability to type an amazing number of words per minute in hopes that she will someday be able to pass the course.

I, MARY CRUMLEY, will to Ann Weir and to Hank Rosen by outstanding conduct grades.

I, TOM DANIEL, leave my little green staff car to all future managers.

I, MIKE DAVID, will my grades in advanced algebra to Joyce Hartley for future use.

I, ANDY DAVIDSON, being the youngest member of the class of 1957, do hereby bequeath my sparkling youth to Miss Ruby in hopes that she will use those extra years in campaigning to get Macbeth a re-trial.

I. GARY DOSTER, leave the privilege of calling Coach Sellers "Zeke" to the following: "Doc" Lawson; "Animal" Hughes; "Grandma" Scoggins; "Lucy" Lewis; "Sanitone" Corneilson; "Lump" Lumpkin; "Teddy Bear" Mitchell; and "Bones" Groover.

I. MARY DAVIS, will to my sister Betty my ability to be "witty" without letting anyone know it.

I, DOLORES DUNAWAY, will my ability to stay quiet in a classroom to Mary Eidson.

I, LINT EBERHARDT, do hereby will my ability to deceive people to my "little'" brother, Guy.

I, PATSY EDWARDS, will my excess height to Shelby Kinman in hopes that she'll be able to use it in the future.

I, MADGE FEILD, will the dent in the door of my car to Mary Lynn Dixon in hopes that the same telephone pole won't sideswipe her as it did me.

I, LEON GALIS, being of sound mind and body will by extraordinary ability to annoy "Unk" to anyone who enjoys annoying "Unk."

I, PEGGY GARRISON, will my ability to use so much gas driving to the country to Bucky Adams in hopes that his daddy will someday own a service station.

I, ANNETTE GIPSON, will my ability to type ten minutes without error on the old Remington typewriter to Patsy Rhodes in hopes that she will be able to do the same in future typing classes.

I, HENRY GRIFFETH, will my '50 Dodge to my sister, Gail, in hopes that she gets to school on time more often than I did.

I, DORIS GRIFFETH, will my units to my brother, Pee Wee, hoping that he will graduate soon.

I, KAYE GRIFFETH, will to Ann Westervelt my position as chairman of chartered buses, hoping she won't have as many problems (especially money) as I did, but enjoy doing it as much as I.

I. FRANK HAILY, will my ability to anyone who goes to Daytona in the years to come to find the "Martinque" on a bicycle while riding double.

I, JEAN HANCOCK, leave to my little brother, Tommy, the ability to graduate from A.H.S.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, PATSY HAWKINS, will my curly hair to my sister, Harriette, in hopes that she won't have to roll her's every day in P.E. as I did. ,

I, HARRIET HEERY, leave my southern accent to the next yankee that comes along since I'm goin' way up no'th to Virginia, I won't be needin' it any mo'. ,

I, JOYCE HITCHCOCK, being of sound body and sickly mind, do hereby bequeath and will my ability to get out of any class to anyone who wants to have as much fun as I did making up work.

I, MARILYN MALINDA HERRING, will my height to Harry Woods, my cousin, who will need it in the future.

I, JIM HORTON, will my entire collection of unexploded test tubes and flasks to any brave person with a match.

I, JO ANNA HUDGINS, will that muddy football field on cold rainy afternoons in October, to the 1957-58 Band, in hopes that they will enjoy practice as much as we did.

I, JOE INGLIS, hereby will my two feet to Dahl Guisler in hopes that four feet will make him move faster in the future than his two have in the past.

I, DAISY JACOBS, will my chair in study hall to Alma Jean Walls.

I, MARTHA JAMES, will to Carol Downs my ol' baton to be used only for the purpose of keeping Nancy Sullivan quiet at majorette practice next year.

I, TIGER JOHNSON, hereby bequeath with tearful sobs my Elvis imitations to Skipper Smith and my blackjack to keep the girls off of him if he does them as good as I did.

I, GLORIA JOHNSON, will my Chevrolet to Peggy Adams in order that she may play "Tootie."

I, JOHNNY JONES, will my wavy hair and my wavers to Wayne Mize.

I, PHILIP JONES, will my nickname "Cowboy" to anyone who will live up to it.

I, BILLY RAY JORDAN, leave to Harold Hubert my seat in Miss Ruby's English class in hopes he will do beter than I did.

I, SHIELA JUSTICE, will to Patricia Ramsier, my seat in Mrs. Pickett's English class in hopes that she will make better use of it.

I, BONNIE KEMPTON, leave my ability to do school work and house work at the same time to Carolyn Goffrey.

I, RUTH KING, will my tallness and red hair to Beverly McLeroy.

I, EL WANDA KINMAN, will to my sister, Shelby, my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time and the wrong place.

I, FAMBRO KNIGHT, will to Jimmy Bryant my ability as a marble shooter. ,

I, LARRY LAVENDER, will my ability to dance and live a reckless life to any underclassman who wants to have a good time.

I. MARY LESTER, will to my sister, Wanza, my place in the parking lot to use in later years at A.H.S. (if she ever becomes tall enough to drive).

I, PAT LESTER, will to Joyce Dockins my ability to make straight A's in Mrs. Pickett's English class.
